World Premiere: The Kite Runner
March 21 – April 19
San Jose Repertory Theater

Enjoy a night out and see the world premiere of The Kite Runner, the stage adaptation of the international best-selling novel by Khaled Hosseini. This passionate story, partially set in the Bay Area, interprets the story of a friendship between two inseparable boys growing up in Kabul in the same house, but from two very different social positions. Their powerful story of friendship and redemption is sure to be a hit when it comes to life on-stage!

Tickets are available online at www.sjrep.com, by calling (408) 367-7255 or visiting the San Jose Rep box office. Show your VTA pass and receive $6 off any regular priced ticket. Some restrictions apply.
